WELLINGTON ALMA MATER

Staunch among the towering trees,
Stands our Alma Mater fair.
Days of priceless worth are these,
None in Memory compare.
With hearts to dare, high hopes to win,
Life for us must soon begin,
Not as slaves but glad and free.
Wellington, all hail to thee.

Linda Biggs, our 1974-75 foreign exchange student, is from Johanessburg, South Africa. Linda came from a year-round private school where students speak only when spoken to. She has discovered many new things such as sloppy joes and pizzas. Linda also enjoys watching television, because it is not available in South Africa. Returning to South Africa in the summer, Linda will share with her friends many of her experiences in Wellington.

THE 1975 CLASS PROPHECY

The year is 1995. Head nurse LOUISE GUITAR has just entered Ward 19 Room 75 of the Wellington Community Hospital to take the patient's temperature. There she finds TERRI (Crash) KIMMEL, one of her old classmates at W.H.S. The two immediately become reacquainted.

"Terri, what are you doing here?"

"Well, Louise, you see I had an accident while test driving an MG; that's what I do for a living. BILL MOHRMAN works with me as a test driver, but he is in the Porsche division."

"Really? How interesting!"

"Say, Louise, do you happen to know what any other members of the class of seventy-five are doing? I haven't seen anyone else from our class in years."

"Well, let's see. So many have been doing so much that it's hard to tell where to start. First of all, LANCE LINTON, as I'm sure you know, recently became President of the United States, although he prefers to be known as King Lancelot. He chose as his Vice-President KEITH McGUCKIN. CAROLYN SOOY and JUDY SMITH are the executive White House secretaries. Lance's first act as President was to appoint JIlM BAKER ambassador to Italy. Then he appointed GENE TRIPP mayor of Wellington.

Gene, in turn, chose some of his old classmates to help him run the city. He hired ROBIN MARKS as his private secretary. Then Gene appointed DUANE (Dudy) NEUMANN as police chief and MIKE MOHLER as his assistant. CRAIG ORR was appointed fire chief. Also, at Gene's suggestion, Chief Neumann appointed LOUISE SIKORA, PATTY CLARK, DIANE EATON, and JANET BROWN as meter maids.

The town paper is being run by co-editors LINDA SCOTT and SUE STANFIELD, who have changed the name from the"Enterprise"to the "Exitprise." Their on-the-spot photographers are GARY BAKER and JOE STUDEBAKER. They also have CINDY URBANSKY and GINNY WEIR writing the local gossip column. TERRY BRASEE and LYNN MURRAY write a column called "Getting Along with Your In-laws."

Wellington's schools are run almost entirely by our former classmates. The present superintendent is TOM GILLETTE, while the high school principal is none other than DENNIS (No Discipline) DILLER. The assistant principal is JERRY LLOYD. Their secretaries are CAROL DANIELS, DEBBIE RICE, and DIANA BROWAND. RACHEL MAYO, DENISE WARD, JILL CONRAD, ROBERTA FAHEY, and DAN WILSON are teachers, although nobody is quite sure what they're teaching. After having had successful athletic careers of their own, some of the athletes from our class have returned to Wellington to try and make the Dukes as good as they were when we were seniors. JEFF WALKER returned to become athletic director. His coaching staff consists of head football coach MARK KEPLER, head basketball coach TERRY (The Stilt) DURHAM, and baseball coach KYLE GOTT. The wrestling coach is JEFF WILGOR and the golf coach is CARL JONES. Supporting the teams in all that they do is the W.H.S. Duke Band which is now directed by ANDREA HANSEN and her assistant MINDY MORAHAN. SUE PITTS is in charge of the flag bearers.

Some others from our class are still hanging in the world of professional sports. BRUCE WHITNEY is a pitcher for the Cleveland Indians while KEVIN DAVIS is the Cleveland Nets' leading singles player. VIC HARRIS and JOE STORROW, the world's leading tag team wrestlers, will soon be making their debut on TV's Big Time Wrestling. TOM COMSTOCK has held the Men's Bicycle Marathon King title for the past fifteen years. Some of the girls who have made it in the sports world are TERRI CADMAN, who is on the Women's Olympic Volleyball team, and CID IRISH, who is now one of the world's leading women track stars. JANE COOLEY and KAY JUSTICE are still attempting to break into the sports world by trying to get the Olympic board to hold competition in tricycle racing.

Then there is TIM BURNS, who is still breaking records as a disc jockey as Wellington's own two watt radio station. Also at that station are weatherman FRED GREETHAM (of Freddy's Forecast fame) and sportcaster RON WILSON.

Many of our classmates have also made it big in the business world, especially ED BUCHANAN who is now editor-in-chief of Mad Magazine. Ed has hired some of his old classmates to work for him. TOM COOPER and CHRIS HIRZEL are joke writers, while BILL McGHEE and MARTY SIKORA are caption writers. BRIAN CLARK is Mad's chief artist.

RUSTY JAMEYSON has gone into business for himself. He owns Wellington's newest night spot, "Russ's Bar and Grill." Russ employs SHARON McKISSON and JULIE TRIPLETT as waitresses, DAN PUSKAS and TIM WILES as bouncers, and RON ADKINS and RICK BOUCH as customers who just sit around and set an example for others by running up a large bill.

JEFF BROWN owns his own business, a gas station. Jeff has JOHN OWSLEY, MIKE RIDDLE, and DAVE ROLLINS working as repair mechanics and BOB MASON and DENNIS SMITH doing body work.

ROD HARRISON is now running Harrison's Ford along with his assistant RON GOSS. JEFF JORDAN also works for Rod as head used car salesman. Harrison's chief competition is DON GIBBINS's Chevy Dealership. Don sells mostly reconditioned Chevys on which RICHARD IRISH and BILL TURNER have done the body work and RANDY ADKINS has done the engine work.

MARY ARNETT, president of A&P, has started a gang war with ROBIN BRUMFIELD, owner of the local Sparkle Market, by trying to take away her employees, FRED ORTIZ, manager, and DEBBIE ASBURY, head cashier.

Some of the city's other businesses are being run by former classmates. DALE RUTHERFORD now owns and runs the Record Shack. HARLAN KEENER runs the Antique Shop and BARRY HOWK has taken over the water business. JANNIE SHAKIR and CARMA JOHNSTON are co-operators of the Salon Carousel.

Around the Wellington area some of our former classmates have made names for themselves in the agricultural and livestock fields. SANDY PARSONS is now running a dairy farm where she is trying to perfect the idea of having the cows give the milk directly into the bottles and cartons. JANET MOHRMAN, BONNY KNAPP, and ANNETTE PHILLIPS are all part owners of the horse stable where resident jockies are DAVE OLSEN and DENNIS SHARP. JIM KLIER and PERRY NORTON are both farmers attempting to grow corn that isn't on ears. They have DAVE KIMBLER going around picking the individual kernels.

Some of the girls from our class are happily married homemakers. These include PAM FOREMAN, JANET RANDOLPH, VICKIE YOUNG, LIEUWANNA URBANSKY, and LASHALL COLE, all of whom make contributions to Better Homes and Gardens.

Others from our class are scattered across the country in various occupations. World famous doctors ANDY ACHE and DAVID HAYES, along with their assistants LYNN BRYANT and SHEILA BRAUN, are now making news with their research paper, The Effects of Alcohol on the Human Body, based upon the experiences of STEVE STODDARD and RICK HAYNES. CLIFF REEP is an executive with the Schick Razor Co. with CINDY HARTMAN as his secretary. DAN SULLIVAN last week beat Bobby Fischer to become the world chess champ. CHARLES THIERET is now the first chair clarinetist for the Boston Symphony Orchestra. DAVE BOARDWINE and GERRY LOGAN are stand-up comedians who travel around the country being followed by CINDY BIDLAKE and GEORGETTA LYONS, whom they pay to applaud at the punchlines. DAN AUBLE is a lifeguard somewhere in the Pacific Ocean. LINDA BIGGS is a travel guide who specializes in tours of Wellington. Last, but not least, VICKI SPONSELLER is out in California as president of the Clark Gable fan club, having just seen "Gone with the Wind" for the 200th time."

"Gee, that's really some list, Louise. I'm glad to see that all of our old classmates are doing so well."

"Yes, Terri, everyone in our class is doing well. On the whole I would say that the Class of 1975 is one of the best to ever be graduated from Wellington High School."

Because of their achievements the 1974 Dukes will be remembered for a long time. Since they were undefeated and untied, they won the Lakeland Conference Championship. No other Wellington team in history has won as many games or scored as many points as the 1974 Duke gridders. Each game was a decisive victory. There have been outstanding teams at Wellington in the past, but the 1974 squad is believed to be the best ever.

The freshman football team finished the season with a record of 1-6. A large factor contributing to a losing season was very little bench strength; in fact, during the Oberlin game only two players sat on the bench. Defensively, the team did a good job. Offensively, it was more difficult for the freshmen to execute the "wishbone" effectively. However, the players learned a good deal about playing football and especially about themselves. Co-captains were Duane Auble and Jeff Couch.

The cheerleaders had a very busy year promoting school spirit at pep rallies and games. They sold spirit stickers, made signs, and decorated the locker rooms before the games, which proved to be a lot of hard work.

SUPER SWINGERS

The golf team finished third in the Lakeland Conference with a 9-5 record; overall, it was 16-7-1. Carl Jones led in average score with 40 strokes per match; as a team the boys averaged 170 strokes per match. The team will be hard hit by graduation since it will lose five senior lettermen – Carl Jones, Jim Baker, Ron Goss, Steve Stoddard, and Bruce Whitney. The lone returning letterman next year will be Mark Baker. This year's squad did a fine job in upholding the tradition of a winning golf team at Wellington.

What appeared to be the start of a winning season for the 1974 Dukes ended in some disappointment. Since the season started out fast and furiously, the team found itself on the "good guy's" side of a 3-0 record. Recovering from a 5½ week layoff, the Dukes improved their record to 4-0 in a win over conference foe Vermilion. Unfortunately, a slump was to hit, dropping the record to 4-8. One game was a "barn-burning" loss to Brookside 66-65. The culmination of the season was a record-setting 41 point last quarter to finalize the regular season. The Dukes were 6-12 in regular season play.

Although small in numbers and short on experience, the Wellington JV's played through the season with determination and enthusiasm. With a lot of hard work and dedication, the boys made a great deal of improvement over the course of the year. The experience gained by the individuals on the JV team will be an asset to the Wellington basketball program in the future.

DUKES ARE CO-CHAMPS!

The 1975 Duke baseball team ended its season as Lakeland Conference Co-Champions with Vermilion. The mighty Dukes posted an 11-8 overall record and a 7-3 conference record. Some of the team's exciting games included the 1-0 defeat of Amherst, the 3-2 and 1-0 victories over Ridgeville, the 6-5 game with Brookside which was won in the seventh inning after the team's being down by two runs, and the 8-1 and 8-0 blasting of Midview. The six seniors from the team who will graduate this year will be sorely missed, as all were starters. Nevertheless, with five returning lettermen, the Dukes can hope for another successful season next year.

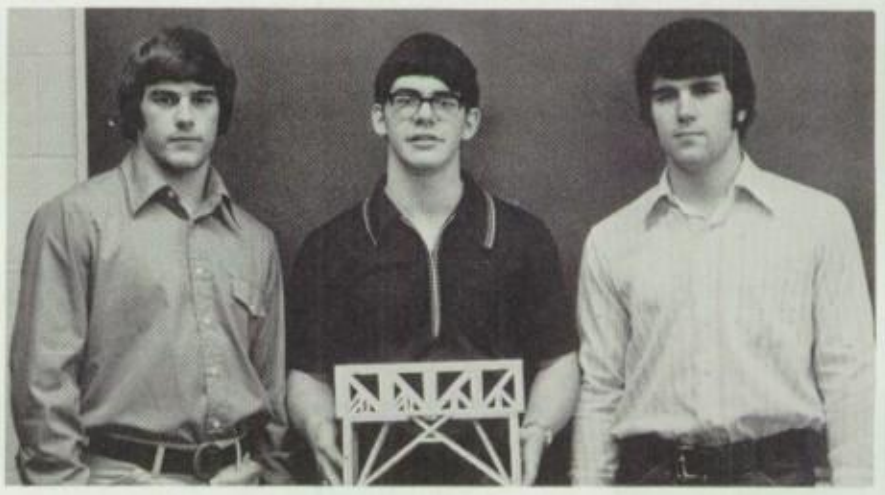
GOOD "CLEAN" FUN

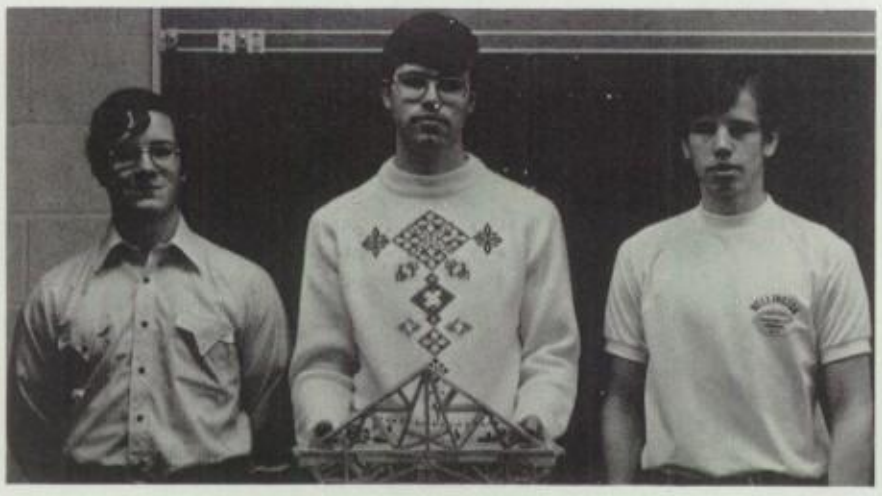
The "Tournament of Colors" began as clean fun, but everyone quickly became quite muddy. The color fights gave the classes a chance to release their inner tensions. In the beginning everyone ran for eggs, but it was not long before the eggs began to fly in all directions. The Junior girls out tugged the Senior girls in tug of war, but the Senior boys made up for that when they pulled the Junior boys through the mud. After the fire hoses had been turned on, everyone was thrown into the mud. A picnic followed the event at Findley State Park.

Physics teacher Mr. Wheeler testing stress of bridges.

First place bridge which held 198¾ pounds.



Second place bridge, 196¾ pounds.



Third place bridge, 159½ pounds.

Fourth place bridge, 115 pounds.

Royalty

On October 18th Vicki Sponseller became the 1974 Homecoming Queen during pre-game festivities. She was crowned by the 1973 queen, Kim Varner, and then presented with flowers and the game ball. The traditional kiss was given by her escort, Ron Goss. The mighty Dukes pulled out their seventh straight win over the powerful Clearview Clippers. The final score was Wellington 21, Clearview 12.

Attendant Diana Browand with her escort, Kevin Davis.

Attendant Terri Kimmel escorted by Steve Stoddard.

Attendant Sharon McKisson escorted by Carl Jones.

Attendant Sue Stanfield with her escort, Jim Baker.

Bonnie Zacharias being escorted by Frank McConnell.

Attendant Kathy Seeley escorted by Ken Kolb.

The annual F.F.A. parent-member banquet was held on April 3, 1975, in the high school cafeteria. The title of 1975 F.F.A. Queen was given to Bonnie Zacharias. Her attendants were Mary Jo Bockmore, Elaine Pitts, and Kathy Seeley. The chapter members were given their annual awards at this banquet. Dave Bockmore was awarded the Chapter Farmer Degree while Kevin Ziegler was given the Greenhand Award.

Attendant Elaine Pitts being escorted by Dan Raifsnyder.

Attendant Mary Jo Bockmore and her escort Jim Seeley.

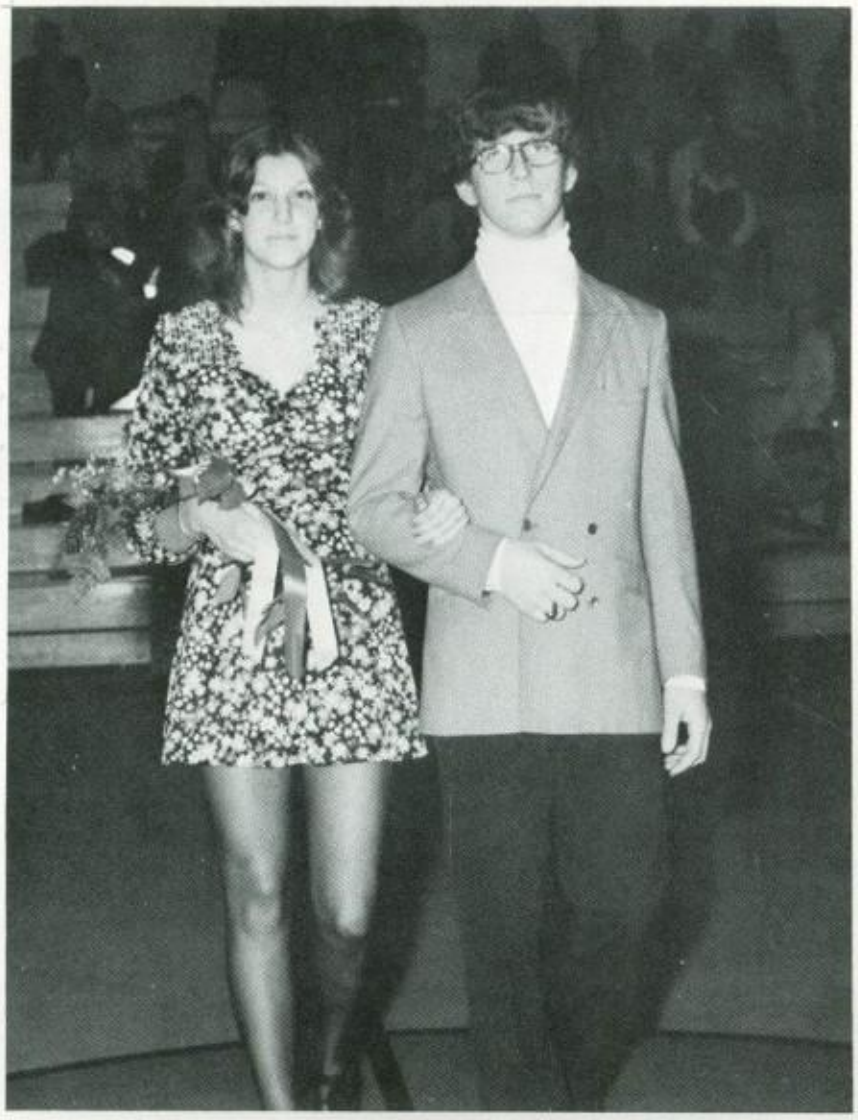
"Dairy Delight"

Queen Bonnie Zacharias is being crowned by last year's queen, Sue Brasee, as F.F.A. President, Dennis Diedrick, looks on.

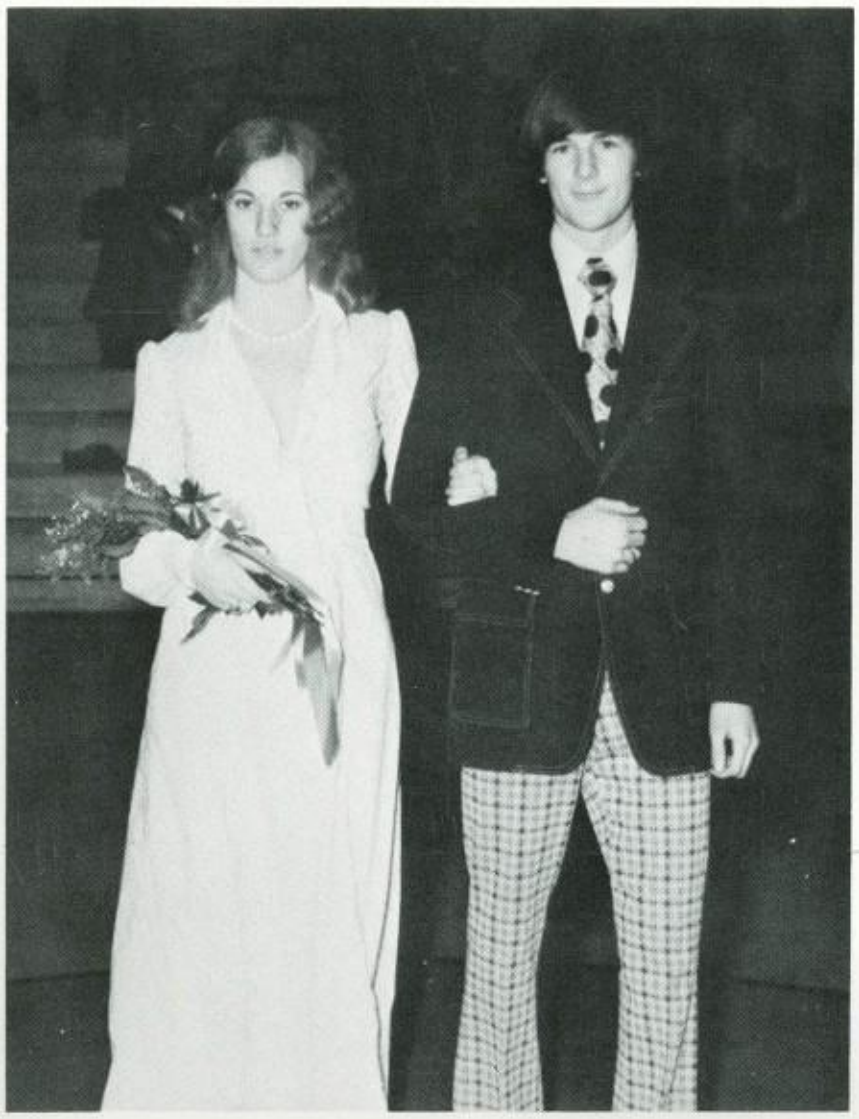
On February 1st during the half of the Midview game, Diana Browand was crowned Winter Sports Queen by the 1974 Queen, Diane Couch. The Homecoming Dance sponsored by the F.H.A. was held on the following Saturday.

Freshman attendant Robin Diller escorted by Greg Gibbins.

Sophomore attendant Debbie Goss with her escort Jay Bowman.



Junior attendant Vickie Jordan escorted by Fred Buchanan.



Senior attendant Lynn Murray with her escort Vic Harris.

The 1975 Prom Duke and Duchess,
Rodney Harrison and Terri Kimmel.

A PROM TO REMEMBER

Junior Class President Dan Wood and Secretary Vickie Jordan announce the Duke and Duchess.

Dan crowning Duchess Terri Kimmel.

Vickie crowning Duke Rod Harrison.

The Fontaine Bleau was the setting of the Junior-Senior Prom held on May 10, 1975. The prom was highly successful, as was the post-prom at the Aquamarine in Avon Lake. The Junior class did a commendable job and made it a memorable evening for everyone.

SPECIAL ED CLASS MAKES MOVIE

The Special Education Class under the direction of Mrs. Will made a movie which will tie in with next year's Bicentennial theme; it is entitled From the Wilderness to Wellington – Ohio That Is. The students wrote the script, made the costumes, gathered the props, and acted out the scenes. The Concert Choir, under the direction of Mr. Schott, provided the background music for the movie. In the top picture Gayle Bouch and Ken Pocock are about to leave for their new home. The lower photo shows Scott Berger clearing land in the contest to see who will name the new town. The members of the class are Russ Anderson, George Johnston, Ken Pocock, Kathy King, Tim Gayheart, Alice Fife, Ruth Johnson, Gayle Bouch, Edith Fife, Scott Berger, Vickie Clem, Guin Auble, and Mike Mohler.
